FIRST CHOICES FARE BADLY

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS AT SARATOGA COME FROM UNEXPECTED SOURCES.

Sensational Betting Coup Brought Off on Louise Welles-Rough Riding Contributes to Downfall of the Favorites.

Saratoga, N. Y.. August 11.—Racing's important adjunct overshadowed the sport itself at the race course today. After Besom's victory in the introductory sprint, five favorites were defeated in succession. The sequence of winning outsiders was climaxed by the victory of the 100-to-1 shot, Louise Welles, a sensationally fast daughter of Dick Welles and Flora Louise. This filly defeated a big band of two-year-olds, including really good ones like Amelia Jenks and Democrat, in the sixth race. Jerome B. Respess' filly was the medium of a tremendous betting coup, which did not materialize until the last few moments of speculation. W. E. Applegate, Jr., and Leo Mayer were the principal beneficiarles of this sensational killing, and between them mulcted the ring out of sums variously estimated at from $25,000 to $50,000. The last bet laid in the ring was $1,200 against $20 by A. J. Levy to young Applegate.

Waterway, pronounced by experts to be the best steeplechaser in the country, was the first public choice to come to grief. A slight stumble at the fifth jump unseated the jockey, W. Allen, and left the favorite's inconsequential opponents to continue their journey without him. A rousing thinsh resulted between the pair. Ray tactics of using head the provide of the pair. RYE'S RACING CAREER AT AN END.

From Saratoga comes the news that Rye was so badly cut down in his race Tuesday that he may have to be destroyed and at any rate has ended his racing career. This little gelding was the pride of Tammany in 1906 and 1907 and a reliable breadwinner for its cohorts. By Greenan—Degenerate, he was a bargain horse and was sold at J. B. Haggin's Sheepshead Bay sale June 21, 1904, to Mike Clancy, acting for C. D. Sullivan, for $250. As a two-year-old he won three of nine races in which he was started, but did not attract any great attention. It was different the next year. He won eleven of twenty-two races and was six other times placed and acquired a following that backed him enthusiastically through thick and thin and against any-body's borse with which he might be in competition. Four of his eleven victories were in stake races, he winning the Aqueduct Handicap, Garden City Stakes, Gowanus Stakes and Saville Stakes and $12,930, quite a profit on his first cost. He was also a good winner in 1907, but became infirm in his front less was was public raced by unsuccessful last year. He was was was public raced to several betting cours of more than ordinary magnitude. His racing record was as follows:

HARRISON WANTS MATCH FOR WALDO.

New York, August 11.—C. L. Harrison, since the victory of his colt. Waldo, in the Saratoga Special, wants to arrange a match race between the son of Planudes and Woodford Clay's filly, Ocean Bound, to decide the two-year-old championship. Waldo is regarded as the best colt in training, but he is not eligible for the Hopeful Stakes and the Futurity and may not have another chance to assert himself until he starts in the Flatbush Stakes at Sheepshead Bay.

THIRTY LEADING WINNING OWNERS

Outside of third money in the Travers Stakes, S. C. Hildreth made no addition to his big stable earnings last week, having so far restrained from starting the stars of his stable at Saratoga. On the contrary, his nearest competitor, James R. Keene, has made marked progress, having raised his stable winnings in the course of the week from 803,503 to $73,573, a substantial gain of over $10,000, won mostly by Maskette in the Alabama Stakes and Hilarious in the Travers Stakes. Barney Schreiber has been dislodged from third place by H. G. Bedwell and now that Jack Atkin is out of commission is not likely to regain that position soon. However, he is safely intrenched in fourth place for the present, his closest follower. Phil Chinn, being more than $5,000 away from him. The earnings and standing of the thirty leading owners, Tuesday's racing included, are now:

J. B. RESPESS UNCOVERS GOOD ONE.

Cincinnati Turfman and His Friends Bring Off Coup with Louise Welles at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y.. August 11.—J. B. Respess brought off a good thing in the last race, won by his bay filly. Louise Welles, by Dick Welles—Flora Louise. He got on $25 at 100 to 1 and $50 to show at 30 to 1. W. E. Applegate, Jr., backed the filly with everybody who would take a bet and is believed to have won at least $25,000. Leo Mayer, who was at Tom Shaw's side when Respess sent in a commission of $25 straight and third, against which Shaw laid $100 and $30. Mayer, after betting George Rose $30 ft. Wille Applegate. Louise Welles led from the break to the finish and was going easily at the end. She was probably best, yet was favored by the interference which Amelia Jenks and Democrat met with from the balf-mile ground to the middle of the homestretch, where they got through. Democrat almost had his neek bowed from being pulled off horses all around the turn. He is a good colt and may have been the best in the field.

In the first and fourth races the chances of Dreamer and Zipango were destroyed at the half-mile ground. Simple Honours backed up in front of Dreamer and Zipango were destroyed at the half-mile ground. Simple Honours backed up in front of Dreamer and made Butwell of Dreamer and should be proposed to the rail and was checked by an exceedingly rough deal. Pins and Needles was almost as badly treated. The rough riding from the half-mile ground to the homestretch is not only an obstruction to true and honest racing, but is absolutely terrifying, Unless it be checked as serious accident appears inevitable and there is no excuse for it, hasmuch as the track is exceptionally wide.

Jimmle Rowe, who used to train Turneoat, expressed confidence that the Keene castoff would win easily today, if he got away from the post with his company. It has the control of the rough and the post with his company. In the foot excluding would break with his company. In the foot excluding would break with his company. The post was prominent for three furlongs and then receded like a rank counterfeit. Tom welsh is disgusted wi

Talk of Inquiry Follows Decision of Principal Feature at Windsor-Old Honesty Poorly Handled in Handicap.

Detroit, Mich., August 11.—The results of today's feature races, the Detroit Stakes for two-year-olds, and a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, occasioned adverse criticism on account of the sudden improvement shown by the winners. The Detroit Stakes winner was Prince Imperial. He triumphed in superior fashion over good opposition. Eva Tanguay was second, just beating English Esther, with Lady Sybil, the latter's stable companion, only a nose away. Frince Imperial was subjected to much early stay of the stretch, but, despite the suddent stretch, but, despite the suddent stretch, but, despite the suddent stre

HERKIMER AND HIS BREEDING.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 11.—It is nothing out of the ordinary for the Sanford two-year-old, Herkimer, to work an eighth in 11, a quarter in 22, and keep right on. Herkimer is a New Yorker through and through. Hurricana, the seat of General Stephen Sanford in the Mobawk River country, was the birthplace of Chuctanunda, Herkimer's sire, and of Auriesville. his dam, Auriesville's dam was foaled at Hurricana, but she was of British pedi-gree.

The dam of Auriesville was Princess Monmouth, which, since Auriesville's time has thrown Kennyetto, a good mare. Princess Monmouth was a daughter of King Monmouth and Cremorna, the latter being by Springfield, out of Trebbia, The Duke of Portland bred Cremorna and her dam (Trebbia) was a sister to the Derby winner, Cremorne.

General Sanford purchased Cremorna through the Weatherbys, who, at the Amsterdam sportsman's request, bred the mare to King Monmouth at the Duke of Portland's stud, Princess Monmouth was imported to this country in utero and was foaled at Hurricana Farm.

ONLY CASE OF OVERZEALOUSNESS.

Washington, D. C., August 11.—The action of customs collector Daniels at Ogdensburg, N. Y., in ruling that the new tariff law does not make provision for the re-entry free of duty of American race horses sent to Canada to take part in racing on Canadian tracks, presents a ludierous side to treasury department officials. There is nothing in the old law or the new which prevents the free admission of any article of American origin, whether it is horseftesh or raiment, which had been shipped out of the country for exhibition abroad. Mr. Daniels' quandary, like many others coming to the attention of the treasury department, was due to zeal in carrying out the provisions of a law which is yet strange.

MASKETTE-FITZ HERBERT MATCH TALK.

Saratoga, N. Y. August 11.—After Maskette's fast race in the Mermaid Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. Sam Hildreth expressed himself as willing to match Fitz Herbert against her at any distance from one mile and an eighth to one mile and a half. Hildreth's proposition did not interest James R. Keene because Maskette had the Alabama in view. Mr. Hildreth might get a response if he renewed the offer here at Saratoga, it is intimated.

BALLACALLA CHANGES HANDS.

Saratoga, N. Y.. August 11.—The steeplechaser, Ballacalla, has been sold by R. Neville to Mr. Chet-land. who recently purchased Sir Wooster from the same owner. The price was not definitely divulged, but is said to be 88,000. Mr. Chetland is the nom de course of A. Henry Higginson of Boston, Mass,

· GOOD FEELING AT BUTTE.

Of the closing of the Butte Jockey Club's meeting the Butte Miner says: "The scene after the last race in the grandstand and betting ring will not soon be forgotten. General regret was expressed at the close of the meeting and everybody was shaking hands and bidding the other the best lack in the future, be if at Anacouda next week or in Butte next year. The highest compliments were paid each are very official and the meeting ended-with such a properties of the second recling on every hand that racing in Butte has been given good racing from a purely racing standpoint and there have been few kicks registered."

Police Judge Dismisses Cases of Men Charged with Making Bets at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., August 11.—The cases of Albert Houston and John J. Newlands, charged with violating the Walker-Otis anti-betting law, were dismissed by Police Judge Deasy on motion of Assistant Attorney Bloch. The men had been arrested at the local baseball grounds while making a bet on the result of a game of the making a bet on the result of a game of the complaint of the game between themselves and the loser paid over the money to the winner. There was no stakeholder and, in his opinion, a bet between two men where there is no stakeholder did not come within the provisions of the act. The judge in dismissing the case said:

"I agree with the assistant district attorney that there must be a stakeholder to bring the case within the provisions of the act. It seems to me that a mere bet between two individuals on the result of a game where one passes the money over to the other, is not a violation of the act. As I understand it there is no allegation in this case that the money was held by a stakeholder."

Judge Shortall has held for trial Charles Schwartz, who bet 34 to 1 with John Liebold on the result of a game Liebold won. Schwartz paying him $7. Liebold having wagered $2. In this case there was no stakeholder. Schwartz paying him $7. Liebold having wagered $2. In this case there was no stakeholder. The American record at the time was Dick Welles' 1:112. The English record was some four seconds faster, but made on the Epsom straight course.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John and Evans Tucker, Marshall Cassidy, E. H. Carle, Dion Kerr, Otto Fleischmann, Robert Taylor and Tommy-Wright are scheduled to have mounts in the gentlemen's race at Saratoga Saturday.

Starter Cassidy is coming in for much praise for his faultless handling of unweldy fields at Saratoga. General Sanford will consign some of his horses to the September sales at Sheenshead Bay. Herkimer and Baron Dieskau will likely be reserved to carry the Sanford colors in the 3-year-old races of 1910.

A. J. Joyner has won fourteen races for H. P. Whitney in England this season, and Whitney's English winnings now amount to $18,165.

William Martin, the former well-known jockey, is seriously ill at Saratoga.

John Madden, former owner of Fayette, declares that that horse would have beaten Hilarious in the Travers if jockey Powers-had attended strictly to his own business. Sam Hildreth, Fayette's owner, entertains a similar view of the race, it is said.

Winner—Br. c, by Orlando—Dixoletta (trained by John Marklein).

Went to post at 3:51. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Prince Imperial was almost thrown at the half and forced to go wide, but finished with a rush and won drawing away. Eva Tanguay, a forward contender from the start, held on well in the stretch and outstayed English Esther in the last few strides. English Esther ran a good race and had no mishaps. Lady Sybil quit after going a fast five furlongs. Bob Co. retired in the stretch as if short. The winner was encred for $1.400; no bid.

Overweights—Eva Tanguay, 2 pounds; Hickory Stick, 1.

84076 FIFTH RACE-1 Mile. (76060-1:38½-5-91½.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and unward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Winner—Ch. c, by Knight of the Thistle—Apology (trained by A. Lewis).
Went to post at 4:49. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Apologize was rushed into a commanding lead from the start, stood the final drive gamely and held the others safe in the stretch. Chicosa had a rough trip for the first three furlongs and, finishing fast, would have won with a clear course. Sinfram was prominent all the way, but fired in the last furlong. Lucky Ford was caught in a jam soon after the start and closed a big gap in the last quarter. Aunt Kate suffered from much interference and tired in the stretch. Gold Front ran fairly weil.

84078 SEVENTH RACE-1 1-8 Miles. (83849-1:521/3-5-105.) Purse $450. 3-year-olds upward. Selling. Net value to winner $350.
